Run the installation program from the enclosed disc. When prompted, plug in the X-keys and slide the programming switch left (towards the cord). After installation completes, slide the programming switch right (away from the cord). The X-keys MWII Icon  will appear in your Windows Taskbar.

Slide the programming switch left to open the programming window. Press any key on the X-keys or click on the key image in the programming window to begin recording a macro. Press the key again or click OK to complete recording. When finished, slide the programming switch right to close the programming window.

We highly recommend that you watch the brief demonstration video on the installation disc or consult the MWII help file for more tips in programming and using your X-keys.

Should you encounter difficulty with the installation, please check the troubleshooting guide on our web site (www.xkeys.com). Alternatively, you may E-mail our technical support department: tech@xkeys.com or call our support desk: (517) 655-5523.

Compatibility – X-keys USB devices require MacroWorks II for Windows 2000, XP, and Vista. For older versions of Windows, please refer to our website (xkeys.com). For Mac OS-X we offer iKey for X-keys software. Both programs are included on the installation disk and are free of charge. X-keys USB devices also have a “Hardware Mode” which gives them the ability to mimic a USB keyboard and mouse on any USB enabled operating system (including Linux) after they have been programmed. Learn more about Hardware Mode on our web site (www.xkeys.com) or contact our Technical Support Department: tech@xkeys.com.

Identifying the Keys – The sticker sheet included with your X-keys is provided for hand written legends. The keycaps snap off with a fingernail or small screwdriver. Apply the label under the keycap, and replace it. To print legends on a laser or inkjet printer, go to our web site (www.xkeys.com) for templates formatted for popular applications. The key caps hold a legend 0.575" wide and 0.5" high (14.6mm x 12.7mm).
